- * Biennial Photo Competition and Exchange with Setagaya – This contest took place in early 2017 with the exhibition being held in late May at Bunbury Regional Art Galleries. This successful contest was run digitally for the first time in its history.
- * 25th Anniversary Celebrations – This year-long celebration of events is sponsored by the City of Bunbury, WAPRES, Simcoa Operations and the Vukelic Group. The celebrations started with the incoming Mayoral delegation in late October and will continue with the Christmas in the City, Bunbury Fringe Art Competition (A Nod to Japan), Southwest Multicultural Festival, the Festival of Japan and the Hanami Picnic.

- * Bunbury Runners Club – 2017 saw five Setagaya runners compete in the Three Waters Running Festival. In November, four Bunbury runners travelled to Setagaya to compete in their half marathon.
- * Imbedded Community Events - In the last 20 months we have been successful in imbedding the Setagaya relationship into local events including the Blooming Art Exhibition (Japanese section), Bunbury Quilters International Quilt Competition (two entries from Setagaya), and Shore Lines Writing for Performance Festival (Haiku section)

CHINA

- * Consul General China Perth Office Delegation – The new Consul General and his delegation visited the South West and requested to visit businesses with ties to China.
- * Bunbury Jiaxing Business Office – Led by the China Officer Yan Lyu who has been successful in securing new clients and new members.

The program will largely remain the same except the students will not visit Disneyland; instead they will participate in four workshops covering theatre, dance, art and music.
- * Incoming Goodwill Tour from Setagaya – No change to this program as Setagaya seems satisfied with its development.
- * Bunbury Cathedral Grammar School and Setagaya Junior High School Exchange – This program will be run by Setagaya and the participating Bunbury schools with little to no involvement from the City of Bunbury.
- * Biennial Photo Competition – This competition will be launched in late 2018.
