Summary

The vacant service provider position on the Disability Access and Inclusion Committee (DAIC) has been filled with the successful candidate Wanslea NDIS.

Executive Recommendation

That the Disability Access and Inclusion Committee note the information presented in this report.

Strategic Relevance

Theme 1: Our community and culture
Goal: A safe, healthy and cohesive community, with a rich cultural life, and supportive social environment
Objective 1.5: Establish Bunbury as the Most Accessible Regional City in Australia by 2020

Regional Impact Statement

The Disability Access and Inclusion Committee provides opportunity for community members to contribute to decisions that benefit Bunbury, through input on the provision of accessible and inclusive facilities, open spaces, programs and services. This ensures that Bunbury is welcoming and inclusive for all who visit and live in the Bunbury Geographe region.

Background

At the Ordinary Council Meeting held 23 June 2020 Council endorsed new Terms of Reference for the Disability Access and Inclusion Committee (Decision 126/20) as recommended by the Disability Access and Inclusion Committee at its Meeting held 27 May 2020. As part of this decision, it was agreed the Committee Membership Composition be amended to include one service provider member on the Disability Access and Inclusion Committee.

At the Ordinary Council Meeting held 27 October 2020 Council endorsed the appointment of Wanslea NDIS and nominated representative Charmaine Herbst (Decision 236/20).

Council Policy Compliance

The DAIC operates under the Council's Code of Conduct.

The City's DAIP commitments are outlined in the Access and Inclusion Council Policy.

Legislative Compliance

Disability Services Act 1993 (amended 2004)

Local Government Act 1995

Officer Comments

Nominations for the service providers working in the disability, access and inclusion industry opened on Monday 27 July and closed on Wednesday 26 August 2020. Applicants were instructed to apply via the City's online platform, Smartygrants.

The assessment criteria included:

- Background, experience and qualifications
- Organisation's main function of disability, access and inclusion

- Important issues impacting access and inclusion
- Teamwork experience and consideration of people with varying needs
- Previous involvement in community activities
- Previous membership in community organisations/committees

Wanslea’s application clearly articulated its strong understanding of the disability, access and inclusion sector including key issues and potential solutions. The nominated representative demonstrated an excellent ability to work collaboratively and build capacity within the community across a wide range of areas within disability, access and inclusion.
