Tell us your priorities for Bunbury

Bunbury Mayor Gary Brennan is encouraging the community to list the top five priorities a future State Government should commit to the city.

With a State election due in March 2017, Mr Brennan said now was the ideal time to highlight what the community sees as keys to Bunbury's social and economic prosperity.

All suggestions will be collated by the City with the top five overall presented to Council for ratification.

Mr Brennan said he looked forward to hearing what residents deemed to be important for Bunbury.

"I encourage people to have their say as the more suggestions we receive, the more tangible the results will be," Mr Brennan said.

People can have their say online at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/XYVDKSX>. Submissions close 9 September.
