School holiday activities for the arty and adventurous

The City of Bunbury's Unleashed School Holiday program returns in April with a host of activities to suit the arty, athletic and adventurous.

For just $25 per day, young people aged 10 to 17 can learn new skills and take on exciting challenges during the school holidays.

The program kicks off on Tuesday, 18 April with a Photography Workshop at The Photography Boutique where participants will learn the fundamentals of photography. There will even be the opportunity to enter an image in the Cultural Exchange Photo Contest, which boasts some amazing prizes.

A great physical workout with lots of laughs is assured on Wednesday, 19 April with Bubble Soccer and Archery Attack at Hay Park, while adventure is the name of the game on Thursday, 20 April at Meelup Beach. It will include kayaking, snorkeling, fishing, beach games, a hike to Meelup Lookout and a barbecue lunch.

The final activity on Friday, 21 April is sure to get the adrenalin pumping with abseiling and caving at Boranup Forest. This activity is open to youth aged 13 and over.
