Community urged to nominate its local heroes

Bunbury residents who have made a selfless commitment to serving the community in 2017 or over a number of years are to be recognised again with nominations being sought for the City of Bunbury Citizen, Young Citizen and Community Group/Event of the Year awards.

The awards provide an opportunity for individuals and groups who make significant contributions to the community to be honoured for their tireless and selfless work.

Mayor Gary Brennan said he was always impressed with the number of people who gave up their time to help others and serve their community.

“People who selflessly give up their time to help make our City a wonderful place deserve recognition, and these annual awards are just one way we can do this,” Mr Brennan said.

Winners will be announced on Australia Day (Friday, 26 January 2018) as part of the official proceedings on the day.

For more information or a nomination form, call into the City’s administration centre at 4 Stephen Street or download a form from <http://www.bunbury.wa.gov.au/Pages/Citizen-of-the-Year.aspx>.

Nominations close Friday, 1 December 2017.
