Free theatre event and workshop!

The City of Bunbury along with Black Swan Theatre Company will present a free event and workshop aimed at young people on Wednesday 3 August at the South West Italian Club.

The production, Shadowboxing, was written by and features Perth writer and performer Ella Hetherington and was produced for students between the ages of 12 to 17.

Shadowboxing explores the journey of two characters, Cat and Benj, who are at a party. But as the party becomes less appealing, Benj escapes to the co-existing world of Shadow, a limitless place filled with possibility and hope.

Shadowboxing challenges the notion of identity, friendship and the balance of truth and make-believe.

Community, Arts And Culture Manager Julian Bowron said the production was of a high quality and recommended local schools consider taking their students along.

“This is an event not to be missed and we are thrilled Black Swan Theatre Company has included Bunbury in its regional tour,” Mr Bowron said.

The play will begin at 11am with the workshop to take place shortly after. For more information please phone 9792 7230.
